DIPLOMA SUCCESS

Hannah Roynon-Jones has qualified as a trust and estate practitioner upon completion of the STEP Diploma in International Trust Management with distinction, obtaining full membership with The Society of Trust and Estate Professionals (STEP).

An associate director with Alex Picot Trust, Hannah manages a portfolio of private clients and leads the tax team, with responsibility for Jersey personal tax compliance and the company's FATCA and CRS reporting.

A Chartered Accountant and Chartered Tax Adviser, Hannah also holds the STEP Advanced Certificate in UK Tax for International Clients qualification. The STEP Diploma has provided her with additional knowledge, specifically a wider understanding of the law and practice of the international trust industry from global and local standpoints.

Andrew Le Cheminant, Director of Alex Picot Trust, said:

“Hannah's achievement, having completed one of the foremost recognised qualifications in our industry, brings the number of our senior team who are now full members of STEP to eight. Hannah excelled in each of the four examinations, passing each of the advanced certificates with distinction.

“We are committed to supporting our team to pursue professional development examinations within their field and we congratulate Hannah on her success in the STEP examinations.”
